AvediaServer Chromecast Control a1008 Application

The AvediaServer Chromecast Control application enables ArtioGuest users to stream content from their mobile device to the device in their room. It also allows central management of Chromecast usage and provides usage statistics and status.

Usage Options

- Sony BRAVIA® and Philips MediaSuite HFL5014 professional TVs with built-in Chromecast
- Over Wi-Fi, using any SmartTV with a Chromecast dongle attached to an HDMI port

Features

- Enables users to easily share content from subscription services, such as Netflix or YouTube, from their mobile device directly to the screen
- Restricts users to accessing only the device in their room
- Provides access to statistics on Chromecast usage

Setup

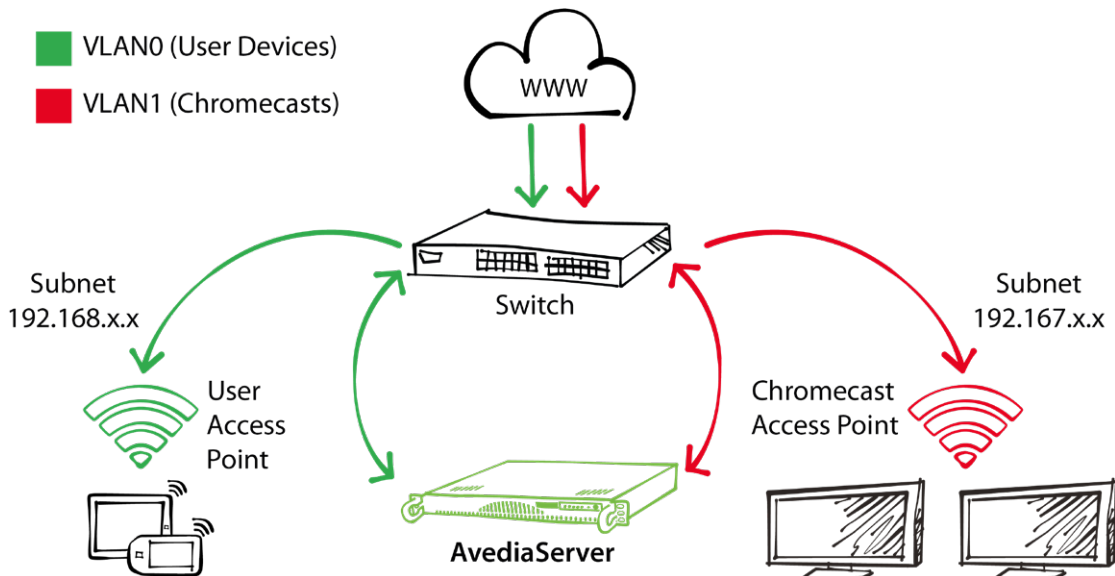

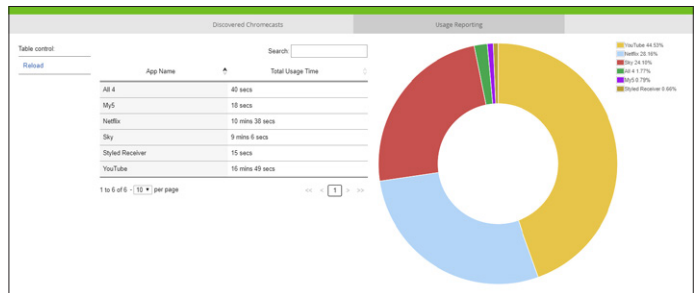

- Two logically separate networks are required, one for Chromecast and one for other user devices
- Both networks require access to the Internet and must be on different subnets

Chromecast Control Application

- Lists all discovered Chromecasts, their current status and other operational statistics
